PRESS QUOTES

I cannot believe that Davina's vocals will remain 'un-heard' for much longer, she has a unique talent that has Blues & Jazz crossover opportunities.

- BLUES MATTERS MAGAZINE / Adrian Blacklee Sept 2011

"Davina Sowers' classically trained right fingers shimmy down the piano keys and meet up with an insistent boogie-woogie bass. Then she reveals her other musical talent: a sassy, salty, sweet voice that's childlike at the top, husky at the bottom." - NPR / Marc Silver 2011 "Song of The Day" / LipstickandChrome

"A combination of blues, Jazz, Dixieland, and Ragtime. Davina and The Vagabonds were the delight of the festival. The public did not feel neglected at all, with a concert packed with humor and memorable solos." - Mood For Blues, Sighisoara Blues Festival, Romania 2011

"Think of a meld of Bessie Smith, Etta James, Alberta Adams and Amy Winehouse, and you come close to understanding what Davina Sowers is all about...Davina is a real talent who deserves greater exposure - and I have no option but to highly recommend this band." BLUES IN BRITAIN / Mick Rainsford (Rating 10)

"(Davina and The Vagabonds) They dare to be different. Davina zips to near impossible heights in a divine declaration of romance"

- DOWNBEAT MAGAZINE / Frank John Hadley 2011

"Hardest -working Blues woman, but.....two things remain consistent at all her shows, though: her throaty but cushiony voice, which has a sort of hard-mattress comfort to it that's part Bonnie Raitt, Etta James and a little Amy Winehouse, and her band's rollicking New Orleans flavor, driven home by dueling horn players and a bayou-thick standup bass" - CHRIS RIEMENSCHNEIDER, Star Tribune
